

August 2008 Consumer Product Service Update

Peregrine XP:

- The serial number for the Peregrine XP is behind the right hand view OBJECTIVE lens towards the top of the binocular.
- Even though there is a knurled grip pattern on the right hand ocular, this part does not turn. The diopter adjustment is on the left hand side only.

Consumer Warranty:

A clear photo copy will be accepted as proof of purchase and warranty. The original proof of purchase receipt is required for rebate claims.

Rebate Claims Update:

The original UPC and the original proof of purchase receipt are required for rebate claims. See rebate claim form for further information.
